

SOCIETY

By Bertha Hempstead

Mrs. Tom King will entertain her bridge club Monday at her apartments in the Baker flats.

Topeka friends of Mr. Will F. Leland, now of Detroit, Mich., will be interested to know that he has been appointed assistant attorney for the Missouri Pacific and will have his headquarters in Atchison, Kan. He will have his office in the Waggener law offices.

Leland, of Troy, and a brother of Mrs. George Hayden, of Topeka. He formerly lived here, and has many friends to be interested in his new appointment. Mr. and Mrs. Leland and their two children are now in Atchison at the Byram hotel, where they will remain until they find a suitable residence.

Miss Bertha Kitchell and Miss Gertrude Kitchell have asked a few guests for a picnic supper Saturday, complimentary to Miss Ethel Lord, who is visiting Mrs. Richard L. Thomas.

Mrs. Harry Ford and Mrs. Ella Nelson entertained the West Side Forestry club at Mrs. Forbes' home west of Topeka Thursday afternoon.

Music for the afternoon was furnished by Miss Lydia Emery, who played two piano numbers. Roll call was responded to by members giving the names of the favorite flowers of their childhood.

The paper for the afternoon was given by Mrs. J. W. F. Hughes, her subject being "The Old Fashioned Flower Garden." She spoke of the present favor in which the old fashioned flowers are held, and she gave descriptions of some local gardens in which old time flowers are grown. She read also from the diary of a New England woman who described her grandmother's garden.

The principal address of the afternoon was made by Mr. L. D. Graham, of Portland, Ore., formerly of Topeka. Mr. Graham went west on business connected with the Panama-Pacific exposition, and he expects to make his home in Portland. He and a son of his are developing a stock ranch in northern Idaho, at Spirit Lake. His remarks included some information on the forestry, industries, highways and waterways of the far west and northwest. He spoke also of the interest that the women of that part of the country are taking in club life and public affairs. He showed a collection of views of the country, including some that have been prepared for the engravers, which are for publication in connection with some articles Mr. Graham is writing.

Members of the club who attended the meeting yesterday were: Mrs. W. L. Bates, Mrs. T. C. Biddle, Mrs. J. Melville Brown, Mrs. J. F. Close, Mrs. D. O. Coe, Mrs. D. H. Forbes, Dr. Eleanor Ernest, Mrs. W. M. Forbes, Mrs. J. W. F. Hughes, Mrs. J. M. Meade, Mrs. Thomas Page, Mrs. C. H. Hiker, Mrs. Walter Ashton Smith, Mrs. F. G. W. Travis, Mrs. O. E. Walker, Mrs. Ward Burlingame, Mrs. A. J. Kelly, Mrs. Harry Forbes and Mrs. Nelson. Among the guests were: Mrs. Eckbert of Kansas City, Mrs. J. D. Corbett and Miss Edna Corbett of Valencia, Mrs. Saxon, Mrs. T. E. Paxton, Miss Williams, Miss Agnes Walsh, Miss Effie Pace, Miss Lydia Emery, Miss Bertha Hempstead, Miss Annie Laurie Close, Mr. Graham, Mr. Forbes, Mr. O. E. Walker and Mr. Walter Bates.

Dr. A. B. Brown and his son, Herbert, and Professor and Mrs. S. J. Brandenburg and their son, Billy, arrived this week from Oxford, Ohio, and have been guests of Mrs. Brandenburg's parents, Chief Justice and Mrs. W. A. Johnston. Dr. Brown and his son and Professor Brandenburg and his son, left at three o'clock this afternoon on the second lap of their automobile journey. Dr. Brown will go to Seattle first, and from there to Corvallis. Dr. Brown, who has been at the head of the physical department of Miami University, with which Professor Brandenburg is connected, has accepted a similar position in the Oregon State Agricultural college, and he will remain in Oregon. Mrs. Brown, who is now visiting relatives in Norfolk, Virginia, will come to Topeka, and later she will join her husband and son. Mrs. Brandenburg will remain in Topeka during Professor Brandenburg's absence, and he will come here to join her later in the season and they will return to Ohio together.

Mrs. Brandenburg will be a guest of honor at the lawn tea to be given Friday, August 4, by Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Adrian L. Greene and Mrs. Henry P. Mason, at the Johnston home.

Neil Overmyer, the little son of Mrs. George Overmyer, fell from a swing and broke his arm. Mrs. Overmyer has charge of the Polk school play ground, and while she was swinging her son he fell out and received the injury to his left arm. Last year his right arm was broken in a fall.

Miss Lulu McCabe, who is studying voice in Washington, D. C., will go to Mystic, Conn., to attend a house party about the middle of August. The party is to be given by friends of Miss McCabe, who were school mates of hers at the George Washington university, where she graduated a few years ago. Miss McCabe will return to Topeka in the early fall.

Miss Mary Parkinson entertained the following guests at an informal party Thursday afternoon: Miss Margaret Kiene, Miss Ruth Kaeter, Miss Ruth Koester, Miss Jane Kingan, Miss Margaret Fuller, Miss Jane Alexander, Miss Margaret Thripp, Miss Ruth Bauer, Miss Alice Andrews, Miss Mary Van Vechten and Miss Helen Welby.

Miss Lucile Maguire of Kansas City, is visiting Miss Virginia Kitchell, Miss Helen Rutledge and Miss Violet Matthews. Miss Matthews will entertain at a bridge party Tuesday and at thimbles Thursday for Miss Maguire. A picnic party was given for her Thursday night by Miss Virginia Kitchell at the Kitchell home in Putnam.

Miss Maguire graduated from the Topeka high school last spring, and is spending the summer in Kansas City with her parents.

Miss Sally White and Miss Rose Ethel White, of Boston, Mass., are visiting their brother, Mr. A. A. White, and Mrs. White. They were guests of honor at a morning bridge party, to which the following guests were asked: Mrs. A. W. Bronson, Mrs. T. W. Davis, Mrs. Warrick Updegraff, Mrs. Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Roy Hollingsworth, Mrs. T. Campbell, Miss Ethel Campbell, Miss Helen McClintock, Mrs. Herbert W. Putney, Mrs. William Trautman, Mrs. Edwin Kistler, Mrs. Monte Kistler, Mrs. George Rex and Mrs. Adelaide Smith. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Edwin Kistler and Mrs. Monte Kistler.

Miss Alice Griffin entertained a few guests Thursday morning for Mrs. Grover Pierpont, of Wichita, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Cockrell. Judge Pierpont arrived Thursday evening from Wichita, and he and Mrs. Pierpont will return home together Monday.

A distress signal is hoisted by the Emporia Gazette. The men who closely follow the fashions are in trouble. It seems that a townsman, wearing a light palm beach suit with the belt stripes of a sport shirt peeping coyly through the cloth of the second section of the suit, namely the trousers, was seen on the street. The false boom shirt has had its day, and now the sport shirt with its "broad stripes" or bright stars shining through a pair of thin trousers in the perilous light is proving offensive to the taste of the fastidious Emporians. The fashion editor cries for some one to invent a shirt of neutral tints that may be warranted not to flaunt its hues through the veiling that these fashionable palm beaches afford.

Mrs. E. D. Clithero gave a porch musicale at her home in Clay street. The guests were seated in the porch and the windows and doors into the music room were left open. Those who played were: Miss Florence Wolff, Miss Clark, Miss Ruth Ingham, Miss Helen Wright and Stanley Clithero. The guests were: Mrs. George Clark, Miss Antoinette Clark, Miss Mary Bacon, Mrs. O. W. Doling, Miss Louise Doling, Miss Pauline Doling, Mrs. W. H. Rutter, Miss Grace Wiley and Baldwin, Miss Ella Clithero of Peabody and Miss M. Stanley.

'COOKERY IS BECOME A NOBLE SCIENCE'

Boston Baked Beans

By CONSTANCE CLARKE.

THERE is, perhaps, no other vegetable dish so cheap and easily cooked and at the same time so agreeable and nourishing, and is a favorite dish with many persons.

Put two cups of navy beans in cold water over night, wash and rinse thoroughly, then put them into salted water, bring them to a boil and let them simmer slowly until tender; pour water away from them, stand on the stove with the lid of the saucepan partly off, to allow the beans to dry; pour boiling water over half-pound of salt pork and score the rind in half-inch strips; put into the bean-pot with the beans. Have ready three tablespoonsful of molasses, one teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of mustard, mix all well together with boiling water to cover and pour over the beans. Bake about seven hours in a moderate oven. Keep the beans well covered with the cover of the pot until the last hour, adding water as needed.
